MEMORIAL Day

A day to remember and relive in the mind the joys of the chain of life. In public ceromony and in quiet privacy we'll pause in every corner of this great country to think with joy and honor of other times, other places, with people who are linked to us forever. The love and devotion of those who molded our lives we carry as our greatest treasure. The noble dedication of those who gave their lives defending our country we know as precious responsibility. We need to recall this inheritance of love and sacrifice so that we pass on to our young the best, the bravest and the truest fiber of character that they will in their lives carry a core of strength and honor and devotion. We must be true to the finest of our dead or we betray the future.

from Mattapoisett. Judy Furnans and Barbara Harriman will paddle down the Mattapoisett River starting at "Grandma" Hartley's to the Mattapoisett Herring Weir. The races are sponsored by the Rochester Men's Brotherhood and first were commenced in 1934 with the winners J. Frazer Hartley and Charles Nute, now living in Carmel, Maine.

The boat race will commence promptly at 8:30 A.M. May 30. There are 11 entries to date including the Misses Furnans and Harriman. Others include the winning team of last year, David Lizotte of Rochester and John Makuch of Mattapoisett; Arthur Benner and Thomas Gayoski, Jr., Carol Tirrell and John MacGregor, Earle O. Phillips, Jr. and Edgar Martin, all of Rochester. Also, Robert Gonet, Rochester, and Robert England, New Bedford; Richard Ellis, Acushnet, and Otis Tripp, Acushnet; Stephen Power and David Valley, both Memorial Day Boat Race rules state all boats must be homemade and may be made of any material. All boats must hit Hartley Road, Rounseville Road, New Bedford Road, Wolf Island, Tinkham Lane and go under both Vaughan bridges. All paddles must be carried the full distance. In the event of a broken paddle another may be substituted. Any boat coming from the rear must touch the lead boat and the lead boat must let it pass. This agreement is requested of all participants in the boat race. All boats eligible for boat prizes must finish at the Herring Weir in Mattapoisett, and there will be no more and no less than two persons to a boat and both must accompany the boat. All contestants who enter the boat race do so at their own risk. All deviations from the above rules will be dealt with by the judges.

At 8 P.M. Memorial Day there will be a dance at Rochester Grange Hall at which time prizes will be awarded. Music will be furnished by the Woodchoppers.

The James Hartley trophy was awarded to Lizotte and Makuch last year, and permanently remains with the same team if they win three consecutive years. Last three-year trophy was awarded to Robert Sherman.

Serving on the Memorial Boat Race committee are Russell Lawrence, Elmer Lawrence and George Leconte.

PILOT GETS PERFECT SCORE IN SCHOOL

First Lt. Robert A. Eyrich, a pilot of the 76th Air Transport Squadron at North Charleston, South Carolina, recently made the first perfect score ever recorded in the Air Force's Ground Training School for Super Constellation flyers.

The ground school which has been in operation since August, 1955, consists of 12 days of training in the general operation of the aircraft, its hydraulic and electrical systems, engines and weight control.

Approximately 500 pilots have attended the school which is the only one of its kind in the Air Force.

Lt. Eyrich was assigned to the Second Air Division in Saudi Arabia prior to his assignment in South Carolina. He piloted C45 Liftmasters in the Far Eastern Command.

During his eight years of service in the Air Force he has logged more than 4,600 hours of flying time.

A native of Oley Township, Penn., the lieutenant is married to the former Miss Joan F. Sylvia, daughter of Mrs. Alfred Sylvia of North Street, Mattapoisett. They have three children, Cynthia, Catherine and Carolyn.

Called "Heritage Trail", the motor highway is the result of more than a year of study on the part of travel officials from all six New England states.

The Trail is aimed at guiding visitors through the region in a planned way in order to give them as much to see and do as possible in the time available. Travel people claim the Trail embraces "the greatest collection of scenery, history, culture and recreation to be found in any area of similar size in the country".

It was drawn up by the New England Hotel Association with the cooperation of the New England Council, the American Automobile Association, the Automobile Legal Association and the recreational directors of the six New England states.

The Trail reaches out to battlefield, museums, historic homes, colleges and universities, cultural events, hills, lakes, mountains, wilderness areas and seacoasts. It can be traveled leisurely in 10 days.

The Trail is essentially a loop through the states and can be entered from any direction and left at any spot.

The route of the Trail was announced at a luncheon held in a Boston hotel and attended by travel leaders from every section of the region. H. M. Smith, luncheon chairman, told the luncheon guests that the day will come when it will be a recreational and educational "must" for all Americans.

"We think the day is nearing when every American will feel his education about his own country and its beginnings is not complete unless he has seen "Heritage Trail", Smith said.

He said the states of Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont will be asked to begin work immediately on marking the Trail so that if necessary it can be traveled without the use of a highway map. A brochure of the Trail is being put together by the six states.

Included as a part of Heritage Trail are special trails which bring the visitor to the lakes regions of Maine, New Hampshire and southern Vermont, Maine's Arrostook County and the off-shore islands.

The Trail includes such outstanding attractions as the Bunker Hill, Concord, Lexington and Bennington battlefields, Plymouth Plantation, Mystic Seaport, Sturbridge Village, Shelburne Museum, the U.S.S. Constitution, the Mayflower, the beautiful mountain notches, Lakes Champlain, Winnipesaukee, Sebago, Rangely and Sunapee, the Newport Jazz Festival, Tanglewood, the Breadloaf Writers Conference, the Shakespeare Festival Theater and hundreds of others.

day, May 24th with a supper at 6:30 to be served by members of the Pilgrim Fellowship in the vestry. Business meeting and program will start at 7:30 at the church. Guest speaker will be Miss Lena Ware who recently returned from Naples. While there she worked with the Casa Materua Orphanage. Miss Ware will show pictures and speak of the work done there.

Commencing Sunday and continuing for a few weeks cartons will be placed inside the vestibule of the church to receive the following articles: men's, women's and children's shoes are desperately needed for Hong Kong. It is stressed that spiked heels are not to be brought but good sensible shoes of all sizes. Another carton will be to collect canning jars to be sent to Greece and the third carton will be for good used clothing, especially children's clothing, to be sent to the home of missionary workers of the Women's Fellowship in Missouri.
